ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The Lillian Tucker Company Here for Five Nights Next Week.

The following from yesterday's Durham Sun refers to the Lillian Tucker Co., which opens at the Academy of Music for five nights and Saturday matinee, on Monday, 31:

A larger, finer or more appreciative audience never assembled in the opera house than the one that faced the Lillian Tucker Co. last evening when the curtain went up. It was a representative andience and one that thoroughly enjoyed the performance throughout, as was evinced by the frequent and hearty applause.

Miss Tucker is pretty, vivacious and a charming and captivating actress. Her emotional parts come to her with naturalness, and in love and sorcery she is irresistable in their portrayals.

The specialties betweeen acts are of the best order and talent. Miss Mary Horne and Geo. F. Moore in their work are entertaining and pleasing, and elicted hearty encores. It was left, however, for the Marsh trio, with little Ethel, the baby Patti, to make the hit of the evening and bring down the house in a perfect storm of applause.

How Durham Does It.

The Dnrham correspondent of the News and Observer writes:

On Tuesday, February the 1st, the Public Library will be thrown open. In addition to many valuable donations the directors have purchased a thousand volumes that will be in place and ready for use at the opening. The committee in charge of this branch of the work, owing to their literary taste and culture give abundant evidence that this work has been well done. In a well written appeal the committee call upon all Durham people to aid in this work by donating from their libraries such books as they can spare and as will be useful to the public. Dr. L. S. Turubull, Judge R. W. Winston and Prof. Edwin Mims compose the committee.

The attractive and always hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wheeler was thrown open to the members of the Home Lyceum last night. Charlotte's Smallpox Cases.

There are no new developments in the smallpox scare. No new cases were reported yesterday and the two noted yesterday morning are being rigidly quarantined.

William Jackson's is more serious than Sallie Wagoner's. He is very sick. Both city and county physicians are watching them closely, and on the alert to anything that suggests smallpox.

The doctors change their clothing as soon as they leave the infected houses and take all possible precaution to prevent the spread of the disease. The houses are rigidly guarded night and day. No one has been allowed to enter or leave either house. Wood, provisions and whatever is needed is carried to the door and the occupants carry it in.

Chief Orr had shanties erected erected yesterday before each gate as shelter for the guards. Monday night they suffered greatly from the exposure.—Charlotte Observer.

$2.60 a "Chew."

Night before last Charles McDowell and Charles Wilkerson were "chewing" at the store of the latter and breaking up the peace of the community into small bits. Today McDowell was brought into the mayor's court and plead guilty to disorderly conduct. He said he wanted to get off as lightly as possible and added "We hain't got much money neither one I don't think." He got the costs which amounted to $2.60

Madrid, Jan. 26—The admiral in charge of the Spanish fleet today informed the minister of marine that the Spanish fleet was in perfect condition. The cabinet will shortly designate war ships to pay a "friendly" call at American ports.

BROOKLYN IS OFF.

Washington, Jan. 26—The Cruiser Brooklyn, now lying in the New York navy yard, sails south on next Saturday to join the North Atlantic squadron at the Dry Tortugas.

BLANCO'S LOCUS.

Havana, Jan. 26—The German Cruiser Charlotte, a schoolship, has arrived and warships are expected from New Orleans. General Blanco has arrived at Juaro.

WHAT BLANCO IS AFTER.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Senor Quesada, in charge of the Cuban headquarters here, said today that he thought Blanco's trip into the eastern provinces was for the particular purpose of assisting in bolstering up as far as possible the Spanish cause.

A. A. Heard, a western passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley railway and one of the twelve heirs who are joint owners of the Taylor plantation at Santa Amalia, near Havana, has filed with the State Department a claim for $91,000 against the Spanish government for property destroyed on that plantation and for loss of revenue for three years.

DEER HUNT.

"Queen of the Forest" Furnishes a Chase to a Party.

A deer hunting party composed of M. M. Jones, Winnie Jones, 14 years old, W. Y. Porter, jr., Ben Fortune and A. G. Jones of the Swannanoa section, had some rare sport last Thursday. The fun began about 7 o'clock in the morning when the "Queen of the Forest," one of the largest does ever seen in that section, was awakened in the shades of a mountain cove near Toe river, by the heavy baying of some as good dogs as ever scented a trail or forced a path through a North Carolina mountain fastness. The excited doe sniffed the tainted air, shook the dew drops from her flanks, and with swift foot sought refuge from her pursuers in the direction of Jarrett's creek, McDowell county. She was shot several times before the creek was reached, where the dogs in close pursuit, "Bonnie" and "Lee" in the lead, captured the game.

When the hunters arrived at 12:30 they found the dogs and deer lying on the bank of the creek, the dogs stiff from their long run and the deer dead. She had run half a mile after being shot the last time, making eight wounds in all. The much prized doe was taken to the camp a few miles away and the tired hunters and dogs feasted. The game was divided—five families being represented—and the happy hunters went home with well filled game bags, for the deer weighed about 100 pounds net.—Asheville Citizen.

Want The Paper.

Colonel B. B. Bouldin, of the revenue service will leave for his place in New Orleans in a day or so. Colonel Bouldin says he has not been able to get any light from others as to the authenticity of the order of General R. E. Lee found by him some days ago. The matter has attracted considerable attention from Confederate veterans in various parts of the country and Confederate museums are anxious for the paper.

Twenty-Six States Represented.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Indianapolis, Jan. 26—The complete list shows that 121 cities and 26 states were represented at monetary commission yesterday. The southern states were weak in their representation.

EWART GETS THE PLUM.

The Matter is Definitely Settled, "So They Say."

A Washington special to this morning's Charlotte Observer says:

It was settled today that Judge Ewart will be appointed judge for the Western North Carolina district.

It has been the uniform policy of both parties to observe the age of limitation in the appointment of United States judges, otherwise the appointment of Lusk was certain.

The President was emphatic today in declaring his purpose to appoint Judge Ewart. I know Judge Ewart was suggested by Senator Pritchard and Representative Pearson, and the President said:

"I will appoint Judge Ewart. I know Judge Ewart well and it will give me pleasure to make the appointment."

That settled it and it can be said that there will be no opposition to his confirmation. When the matter was called to Senator Lodge's attention today he laughed at the idea of opposing Judge Ewart. He accepted Mr. Ewart's speech in the house, in which reference was made to him, as more of a compliment than an affront.

Judge Douglas has also assured Judge Ewart that he has no intention to oppose his confirmation.

CORBETT SIGNS FOR A FIGHT.

The Challenge Will be Submitted to Fitzsimmons Sunday.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Jas. J. Corbett tonight signed articles calling for a fight with Robert Fitzsimmons, which George Considine, of Detroit, is confident he can pull off next summer. The articles are identical with those governing the fight at Carson City, with the exception of the purse, which in this case is $25,000, as against $15,000 at Carson City. Considine agrees to post a forfeit of $5,000 to go to the men in case he fails to pull off the fight. In return he demands a forfeit from each of $2,500.

Considine expresses great confidence in his ability to have the fight without interruption, and said that besides the purse for Fitzsimmons and Corbett, he would offer $15,000 for "Kid" McCoy to go against Choynski, Jeffries, Maher or Ruhlin. Kid Lavigne, he said, had promised him that he would fight McPartland at 133 pounds. For this event a good purse will be offered, Mr. Considine declared.

Considine is to meet Fitzsimmons in Detroit on Sunday, and expresses himself as sure of being able to induce the champion to write his name beside that of Corbett on the articles of agreement.

Marriage at Winston.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, N. C., January, 26.—S. T. Boyles, teacher of High School, Pilot Mountain, was married at the residense of Mrs. Nancy Stewart last night to Mrs. Irene Raney, of Germanton, at 8 o'clock by Dr. H. A. Brown. Several invited guests were present. They left this morning for Pilot Mountain for the home of his father where they will live.

Miss Gertrude Brown returned this morning from her studies in the Boston conservatory.

That Dog Ordinance.

Has the dog ordinance expired? If not, why is it not enforced? It is making a perfect farce of law to have a statute on the books and not enforce it. There are places in Greensboro where from four to a dozen dogs may be seen on the streets at almost any time of day or night. There are only five days remaining to complete the time for which the ordinance was enacted, but it should be repealed at once or enforced for the remainder of the term.

The South Carolina Dispensary.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The Senate's South Carolina dispensary bill was given a hearing today by the House committee on judiciary. Senator Tillman and State Attorney Barber argued in advocacy of the bill, which has already passed the Senate. They contended that each State has the right to make its own laws and to regulate and control the traffic within its borders. J. P. K. Bryan, of South Carolina, opposed the bill, and claimed it to be unconstitutional and a violation of the inter-State commerce law. The hearing will be continued at the next meeting.

SEEKING IMMIGRANTS.

Drumming up Recruits in Kansas for the Canadian Northwest.

Wichita, Kan. 25.—For a week or more agents of the Dominion Government and Canadian railroads have been working in the country surrounding this city in the endeavor to induce immigration into the districts of Saskatchewan, Alberta, and Assiniboia, in the Canadian Northwest. A number of meetings have been held, and in this city this evening a club of farmers numbering 150 was organized with a view of planting a colony in that country. The majority of the members are farmers financially able to make the journey, and have enough to start in the new country. Many of them have met with a fair degree of success in Kansas, while others of them have failed and are now seeking to recover lost ground.

AVERY'S DEFENCE OF STANLY.

Judge Avery is out in an open letter in which he declares that the press and people of North Carolina are estopped from criticizing Stanly county for repudiating her bonds and other counties for attempting repudiation because the bonds issued by the carpet-bag legislature of 1868 were repudiated by the assembly of 1979 as afterward ratified by a popular vote.

The grounds of the repudiation of 1879, as commonly understood, were simply that the legislature of 1868 had not been chosen by the citizen body of the state, did not represent such citizen body and that the proceeds of the bonds, with a small exception, had not been applied to the ends and uses of the state. The people of North Carolina were not a party to the agreement and were acquitted of all obligation under it accordingly.

It cannot be pleaded in defence of the people of Stanly that they were not a party to this agreement. That the vote was not taken deliberately and after a full discussion. The charge has been made that all of the money obtained for the bonds was not required to construct the railway. If so, the managers of the road were guilty of bad faith to that extent. But no amount of argument can conceal or dispel this fact. The people of Stanly pledged themselves to pay and now refuse to pay. They were promised a railroad in return for the bonds and got it.

If the present wholesale attempts at repudiation are exactly parallel to the case of 1879, it does not appear that, therefore, such attempts are justifiable or beyond criticism at this time. If North Carolina has in any way acted dishonorably in the past there is the more reason why the state and each county of the state should shun any suspicion of dishonor in the present.

Judge Avery's argument simply means, logically, that one false step having been taken, other steps of a like nature are taken out of the category of things open to criticism; that once wrong, always wrong.

If the Stanly case finds its prototype in the case of 1879 it finds no excuse in it. Criticism of what is wrong in public matters or public morals is the first essential to a correction. If the history of the state were blackened with repudiation for an hundred years that record would offer no bar to criticism of repudiation in the present nor make repudiation in the present more tolerable.

In the Alliance platform, free silver is not the sole, in fact not the chief, plank. The man who expects the support of Alliancemen must cover the whole ground and not one plank only. —Progressive Farmer.

And the cat is out of the bag. Some time ago we noted the attempt to revive the Farmer's Alliance and ventured the prophecy that it was only another attempt to bolster the populist party; that it would not be "kept out of politics." Here is the verification of the prophecy already. The Progressive Farmer had attempted to turn itself from a rabid populist paper into a farmer's organ. It is the official organ of the Alliance. It has been chiefly concerned in the attempted resuscitation of that order. It has declared that the order would be non-partisan. "The man who expects the support of Alliancemen must cover the whole ground" etc. See? Nobody but a populist can possibly spread himself over so large an area. The conclusion is self evident. A few more democrats and republicans are to be roped in to the populist party by means of a new Alliance. Under the leadership of its present promoters a non-partisan Alliance is an impossibility.

North Carolina has the comforting assurance that on days like yesterday she has a Governor who can do full justice to the weather in behalf of all his people.

Governor Griggs who was yesterday confirmed as Attorney-General to succeed Mr. McKenna should be assured by the knowledge that it will be easy to fill the seat of his predecessor.

The attitude of the Honorable James Boyd toward those of his friends who are urging that he is "too young and active to be retired upon the judge's bench" is probably one of mild dissent.

The democratic party is the only responsible party in North Carolina. It is the only party that is not dominated by greed of office, by personal hatreds, by motives that will not bear the light. There are increasing evidences that by the time the leaves are falling the good people of this state will have determined that they have enough of the wild vagaries of populism and the deliberate debauchery of republicanism. The worst prophecies of the bitterest enemies of fusion failed to adequately forecast the stigma and the shame it has brought upon the state. It will not be an easy battle. The opponents of democracy are not hampered by scruples. There is no dodge known to political schemers that will not be tried. But it appears that if the friends of honor and the advocates of seemliness will but be alert the day of reckoning will come in November.

A TRUCE TO IT.

If President McKinley appoints Mr. Douglas, he must be more under the Roman Catholic influence than one would like to think. Indeed, the President's course in respect to Roman Catholics has done more than all else to persuade us that the report of his political alliance with Archbishop Ireland really exists. If the apostle of protection will strive more to protect our people from Rome, we will be content with less protection of our manufacturers and products.—Biblical Recorder.

A truce, we pray, to the talk about "protecting our people from Rome." Our people are abundantly willing and able to protect themselves if any protection be needed. We are tired of these periodical attempts to bait Roman Catholics. So far as Judge Douglas' fitness for the position sought is concerned, it could make no difference whether he is a Catholic or Parsee, Baptist or Brahmin, Gueber or Mohammedan. If there be any one tenet to which we, as Americans, hold it is that no man's religious views shall be urged for or against his political fortunes. It is utterances of this sort from responsible church organs that find an echo in talk of "tar and feathers" among the thoughtless laity. We have enough evils in this state at present, in all conscience, without augmenting the number by that most irrational and ineradicable of all—religious strife. Spare us at least the bitterness and the rancor, the ugliness and pitiable retrogression that must mark such a conflict.

A Great Surprise.

His eyes shone wild. He babbled on
Like one with spectres haunted.
By chance he took a reference book
And found just what he wanted.

Are You "Run Down?"

Until February, 1892, I was a physical wreck and had been for over twenty years. No one can ever know what I suffered from rheumatism and neuralgia in different parts of my body, but principally in my head. I suffered so much with pains in my back that often I would have to lay with bottles of hot water to my back to give me what little relief it would. I suffered with indigestion for years, which gave me often such choking spells that the doctor would have to be summoned in haste. I could not eat a mouthful of meat or solid food of any kind, and the eructation of gas from my stomach was distressing. My system was completely run down. I had no strength and was distressingly nervous. Sometimes I would be unconscious from these nervous spells and would have to have hot baths applied for relief. When I had been in this condition for over twenty years, Mrs. Joe Person visited our town in February, 1892, and persuaded me to try a half-dozed bottles of her Remedy, as she told me she had never known it to fail to restore a broken down system. I knew I would have to try something and thought it might as well be her Remedy as anything, but I had no faith in anything curing me. I bought a half-dozen bottles and when I was on the second I began to feel better and by the time I took the six bottles I WAS WELL. Indigestion was perfectly cured and I can now eat anything I want and it agrees with me. It cured me entirely of neuralgia and I have never had it since. It cured me of hemorrhoids from which I suffered agony—rheumatism, backache, headache, nervousness all cured. When I see any one suffering from anything I ask them why don't they take the Remedy, that half a dozen bottles would cure them. I would not take hundreds of dollars for what it did for me It restored me to health and now I enjoy life.

TOM WATSON LOOMS UP AGAIN.

Wants to Run for Governor of Georgia with His Eye on 1900.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 24.—There now seems to be little doubt among the politicians of the candidacy of the Hon. Tom Watson for Governor of Georgia by the populists. Mr. Watson has encountered some opposition from State Senator Yancey, who made himself famous by precipitating the judicial inquiry last summer, but it was represented to Mr. Watson by his friends that unless he stood for some prominent office in the State he would not go to the National Convention with the necessary prestige, and in all probability he will make the race with the intention of strengthening himself as a populist candidate for President in 1900. Nearly all of the county delegations to the State Populist Convention to be held here on the 16th of March have already been elected, and with no exception they are in sympathy with Watson's Gubernatorial aspirations. It is possible that after Watson has struck some hard licks in the campaign he may retire in favor of some other party man, but this contingency is subordinated by politicians to the all-absorbing fact that Watson will go on the stump for Gubernatorial honors in the impending campaign.

THE BAPTIST UNIVERSITY.

Plans Set on Foot to Secure its Early Completion.

Thirty-three thousand dollars have thus far been spent on the Baptist University.

Ten thousand more must be raised this spring if it is opened in the fall. Of course it will require more money, bnt with $10,000 in hand, the trustees would see daylight ahead.

Last night a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and citizens interested in the University held a meeting to discuss ways and means to push forward the work, and secure the early completion of the University. President Raney called the meeting to order and upon his motion Mr. W. N. Jones was elected to preside over the meeting. In taking the chair Mr. Jones made a sensible talk, showing why it would help Raleigh to move forward and be liberal to secure the early completion and opening of this institution.—News and Observer.

THE ARMY BILL.

A Reduction From the Amount Appropriated by the House.

The army appropriation bill was reported today from the Senate appropriation committee. The total amount carried by the bill as reported is $2,142,892, which is a net reduction of $43,100 from the amount carried by the bill as it passed the House. The reduction was caused by a change in the allowance of mileage to officers, the House appropriation being cut from $130,000 to $80,000. The Senate provision also makes a change in the regulations for these allowances. —Washington Star.

A Sop for Greensboro.

A Washington special to the News and Observer of today says:

Senator Butler today introduced a bill to appropriate fifty thousand dollars for the improvement and enlargement of the public building at Greensboro. He says this is an urgent case and one that needs the immediate attention of Congress. He will endeavor to have the $50,000 tacked on as an amendment to one of the appropriation bills.

Short Lived.

It has been previously announced that there is a purpose to establish a republican newspaper at Raleigh, and the statement is now made that the company which is to publish it has been incorporated with a capital of $2,500 and leave to increase to $10,000. We take leave to say that if the paper is expected to live beyond the time of its birth the $10,000 had as well be paid in to start with, for we can give the assurance that the $2,500 will not last long.—Statesville Landmark.

New Postmasters.

Washington, Jan. 25—Fourth class postmasters have been appointed as follows: Virginia, South Hill, Joseph F. Pace; North Carolina; State Road, James A. Chapman; Wilkes' Store, Athen L. McClure; Zoar, Henry W. Pussee.

Hurts His Feelings.

"I'm sorry," said Billy Bliven, "but my landlady is inclined to treat me very coolly."

"Well, be a philosopher, and don't notice her manner."

"It isn't her manner that I object to. She turns the heat off from my room every morning."—Washington Star.

PITCHED BABIES FROM A FIRE.

Five Children Caught Tossed From a Blazing House.

New York, Jan. 24.—As the crackling of flames and clouds of smoke aroused Frederick Drecht, in a three-story Williamsburg tenement house fire early this morning, he went to the front window and called on the crowd to aid him. He first took his four-year-old girl in his arms, and, leaning out of the window, lowered her as far as possible, then swung her out toward the sidewalk in his arms and let her drop. The hands of half a dozen men were outstretched to catch her. One after another the father threw his four remaining children out until the last was safe; then he and his wife clambered down the fire escape.

Fred Keller, who, with his wife and three children lived on the top floor, took his two-year-old daughter under his arm and with his ten-year-old son clinging to his back, made the descent of the burning stairs. The loss was about $6000.

WANTS HARRISON INDICTED.

"Lexow" Committee Thinks the Mayor Violated Civil Service Law.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Senator Joseph P. Mahoney today advocated the Grand Jury for Mayor Harrison. After he had finished speaking the Senate investigating committee passed a motion to lay before the State attorney all evidence taken by it regarding violations of the civil service law. The motion was passed unanimously. The principal ground cited for indicting President Adolf Kraus of the Civil Service Commission was the charge that he changed the marking on an examination paper. He thought that mistakes as to a decimal point should not be counted. The alleged culpability of Mayor Harrison lies in the charge that he influenced the commission to violate the law.

Senator Lodge's Resolution.

Following is the text of the amendment to the Teller silver resolution offered today by Senator Lodge:

"That all the bonds of the United States issued or authorized to be issued under the said acts of Congress are payable, principal and interest in gold coin or its equivalent, and that any other payment without the consent of the creditor would be in violation of the public faith and in derogation of his rights."—Washington Star.

VAUGHN CAPTURED.

Policemen Weatherly and Whittington Landed Him Last Night.

The judgement of the mayor's court in the case of G. O. Vaughn, a few days ago, was that he be bound over to court in a bond of one hundred dollars. For some reason he was turned loose and the bond was not given. It was thought that he had left town and reports were current that he would refuse to be arrested.

Night before last the two policemen named above got pretty close on him in a field where he was amusing himself by firing off his pistol. His movements were watched and his den spotted. Last night Messrs. Weatherly and Whittington swooped down on him and he was arrested and landed in jail, despite his threats of "refusal."

He is a sorry specimen. His wife and barefooted children are left to subsist on the charity of the public, while he has been spending his time and money in debauchery and revelry in places of bad repute. This is the ugly tale told on him by the officers who have been watching his movements of late, and we have no reason to doubt it.

It is to be hoped by all decent people that he will not escape this time and that his case will be investigated at the next term of superior court.

"Wang's" Leading Lady.

Miss Laura Denio, whose real name is Laura Denio Shorter, the leading lady in Wang, is of southern parentage the daughter of Hon. John A. Shorter of Brooklyn, who for twelve years was the assistant District Attorney of King's county, a niece of Ex-Governor John Gill Shorter the war governor, of Alabama, a cousin of Col. Alfred Shorter, of Rome, Ga., the founder of Shorter College, and also a cousin of Mrs. A. H. Leftwitch of this city.

Miss Denio is a beautiful young woman of the highest character and family and whose excellent soprano voice and triumphs in amatuer opera led her to adopt the operatic stage as a profession about a year ago. Her success was immediate and when she made her debut at Newark, in Wang, a few months ago she made a great hit and was given an ovation. All the critics of the New York papers were united in their praise of her beauty, her voice and her vivacious acting.

The Telegram is assured by friends who know Miss Denio that those who hear her at the Academy of Music on the 29th, will undoubtedly enjoy a great treat.

No Pay for Moonlight.

The electric lights south of the railroad on South Elm Street need attention. Night before last for about thirty minutes a little slim moon, about the size of the rind from a slice of a five-cent watermelon, was all the light to be seen over on that street, and it was far, far away, hanging low over the western hills, pale and dim.

Certainly the moon won't charge anything for that light; but how about the electric light company? And it is not an infrequent occurrence that the electric lights over there refuse to burn.

Death at Summerfield.

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock William Lee Ogburn, aged about 18 years, son of Rev. T. J. Ogburn, departed this life after a prolonged illness of consumption. Rev. Mr. Ogburn the grief stricken father, is a well known and popular minister of the M. P. church, and will receive the sympathy of hosts of friends all over the State.

The remains of the young man were carried to Henderson today where they will be laid to rest by the side of his mother, who is buried there.

Does the Seaboard Come in?

It is learned on good authority that the sale of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad to the Seaboard Air Line will be consummated within the next few days. The decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals, in favor of the Baltimore plan, will be handed down when that court meets on the first Monday in February.

The Seaboard Air Line system is now making preparations to take possession of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley road at an early date.—News and Observer.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style.
